What you can expect

- The trainee program in Information Services offers you an opportunity for an 18-month introductory phase with subsequent hiring at Wintershall Dea at our headquarters in Kassel starting in October 2019.
- From strategic planning, enterprise and data architecture to cybersecurity, service management and agile project management and beyond to the tasks involved in information services operations, you will move through all of the areas of a modern IT/IS.
- You will be in direct contact with our internal customers and will capture strategic and operational business requirements and support the process of translating these requirements into IT/IS solutions.
- You will spend at least three months working on a challenging project at one of our sites in another country.
- To expand on your personal and professional skills, you will participate in seminars and workshops on the subject of introduction to the oil and gas industry, project management and/or presentation techniques.
- You will be an integral element of our team right from the start and will develop toward the target function that is right for you.

What we expect

We have the following minimum requirements

- Master's degree in computer science, data management, data science, business informatics, engineering or a related discipline with above-average grades
- Initial practical experience in IT projects
- At least three months of time spent abroad (in the form of a semester studying abroad or internships abroad)
- Fluent English language skills (at least level C1); additional foreign language skills are a plus
- Enthusiasm for the oil and gas industry and the subject of digitization, an innovative mindset and analytical and conceptual skills

We offer

Wintershall Dea will immediately begin preparing you for future assignments by giving you challenging tasks, exciting projects and responsibility. You will gain insights about your own competencies and further your personal development. In addition, you can expect a quick integration through networking events, a variety of seminars and continuous support by a personal mentor.

Who we are

With the merger of Wintershall and DEA Deutsche Erdoel AG, two successful companies with a long tradition have formed Europe's leading independent natural gas and oil company: Wintershall Dea. The company with German roots and head-quarters in Kassel and Hamburg explores and produces gas and oil in 13 countries worldwide in an efficient and responsible manner. With activities in Europe, Russia, Latin America and the MENA region (Middle East & North Africa), Wintershall Dea has a global upstream portfolio and, with its shares in natural gas transport, is also a leader in the midstream business.

Wintershall Dea stands for more than 120 years of experience as an operator and project partner along the entire E&P value chain. The company employs around 4,000 people worldwide from over 60 nations. The company plans to increase its average daily production from around 590,000 barrels of oil equivalent to a range of 750,000 to 800,000 barrels in the period between 2021 and 2023. In the medium term, an initial public offering of Wintershall Dea is envisaged.
