Second edition of DEA Magazine 2017

The new issue of the DEA Magazine is out now. This time, the focus is on DEA's business operations: in a detailed interview, COO Dirk Warzecha reports about progress of business worldwide and classifies DEA's activities with regard to its corporate strategy. The 30-year success story of Mittelplate in the German Wadden Sea is another key topic.

In addition, we present you two growth markets of importance for DEA, with good business opportunities: namely Mexico and Brazil. And of course, we once again provide information on current activities surrounding the topics of safety and environmental protection, which permanently enjoy top priority at DEA.

You can look forward to this and more... Enjoy reading!
